Rare chance to taste nation's top drops and produce

Prepare your palate - you could soon be raising your glass to the country's best red, white and sparkling, with tickets to the exclusive Royal Queensland Food and Wine Show (RQFWS) presents Grape Grazing by Night on sale from today.

Following the Royal Queensland Wine Show (RQWS) Awards, the general public are invited to taste their way through more than 1,700 entries, including medal winners and new vintage of season.

The RQWS is the first to critically review the 2019 vintage in Australia, setting the benchmark for the industry.

While browsing through the extensive wine libraries, guests will also be able to indulge in the nation's finest cheese, lamb and beef as awarded by the RQFWS.

More than 900 wine enthusiasts attended last year's Grape Grazing by Night, with the popular event a sell-out.

Now in its fifth year, this ultimate cellar-bration of wine and food will take place at the Brisbane Showgrounds on Friday 12 July from 5.30pm.

Tickets are now on sale at www.grapegrazingbynight.com.au for $95 each. Fine wine and food is meant to be shared, so gather your friends and take advantage of our special group discount rate - $850 for a group of 10 ($85pp).

The RQWS dates back to the very first Royal Queensland show in 1876, and has continued its tradition of recognising excellence and showcasing the nation's diverse growing regions, the passionate winemakers and their outstanding wines.
